ANDERSON SAVES DAY

Although charity was supposed to be the keynote of the diamond attraction between Glants and Yankees at the Polo

The struggle got so ferce several times that injuries were thick and two Giant regulars just escaped incapacitation. Buck Herzog made a sweeping tag of Elmer Miller completing a double play in the second inning and received a nasty for the manner the phillies regarded the Giants. Before the manner the phillies regarded the Giants. Before the manner the phillies regarded the Giants. Herzog refused to leave the game, however. Dave Robertson was so eager to get on base in the eighth that he stuck his knee in front of a pitched ball and dropped to the ground as if shot. He rubbed the injured spot for several minutes and also resumed play, refusing to leave the battle, especially with the ac-at times, but he had lapses that gave just the openings that the Giants needed. When he was good Allen was invincible. When he was good after was the walked none and allowed only seven hits. How-ever, four of these seven bingles came with a man within scoring distance of that he kept efficient care of the Yankees and allowed no dangerous runner to get near home. Anderson too went after etrikeout mark, setting down eight of the Yanks during the five and one-third innings he performed. He allowed only two hits, one of them being a prodigious two base wallop by Kid Walter that sent second Yankee run over the plate.

Benny Kauff carried the attack of the Giants to the Yanks and paved the way for the first score of the game. In the first inning Russell set down the Glants in order, and had two out in the second when Henny slashed the ball to deep right centre, travelling the circuit before it could be retrieved. His smash went on line almost to the fence and was a remendous clout. Inspired by Benny a spirited attack was started in the third that brought over another run. Yank errors helped it across. Again two were cut when Burns singled and Herzog followed with a safe shot to right that put Burns on third. A double steal was tried and Burns scored when Walters threw into Robertson rolled to Maisel. who fielded the ball but dropped it try-ing to throw, Herzog getting to third. BEECHER BACK IN RING THIS WEEK

Celebrated Homecoming by Willie Will Meet Harry Pierce at Broadway Sporting Club To-morrow.

Several interesting boxing large CLEVELAND. Sept. 10—(American).—
After losing seven straight games Cleveland celebrated its homecoming to-day by defeating Detroit 8 to 2. James, who started to pitch for Detroit, was wild and ineffective.

Morton developed a wild streak in the third and gave way to lagby, who held Detroit runless the remainder of the game.

Several interesting boxing laute are scheduled for this week, the best of which will bring together Willie Beacher and Harry Pierce at the Breadway the spectators are not likely to see any very scientific work on the part of these husky young men, but in the natter of cyclonic contention the ticket bayers are quite apt to get their money's worth and then some.

> The Olympic A. C. has an interesting card for to-night in which the to-bust Carey Phelan, who is inclined to be rough, will try to get past the elever defence of Johnny Harris. Phelan has engaged in several lively contests at the Harlem club and if past performances
